SCHEDULING ORDER

Finding it in the interest of justice and otherwise reasonably necessary for the orderly and efficient administration of justice, it is hereby ORDERED that the schedule set forth below and in Pretrial Schedule A (attached) shall govern the progress of this action, except to the extent amended or augmented by the terms of the Initial Pretrial Order issued after the pretrial conference or by any other Order.

1. Any party which has not filed an Answer to the Complaint shall do so within eleven (11) days after entry of this Scheduling Order. Filing of an Answer shall not waive any previously filed motions or properly presented objections to jurisdiction or service of process.

2. Within fifteen (15) days after entry of this Order, motions for joinder of additional parties or amendment of pleadings shall be filed. Any such motions filed thereafter will be entertained only upon a showing of good cause.

3. Within fifty (50) days after entry of this Order, counsel for each party, and a representative of each party with authority to conclude a settlement of this action, shall meet in person with the undersigned district judge or, if directed, with another district or magistrate judge to discuss settlement. The representative for a business entity (corporation, partnership or otherwise) must be an officer or employee not employed in the business entity's law department or general counsel's office, although such lawyers are welcome to attend with the other representative. Each counsel shall be prepared to present a cogent, brief summary of the issues of liability and damages. Counsel for each party shall be responsible to assure that the settlement conference is conducted as herein prescribed.

Richmond Division

PRETRIAL SCHEDULE A

This Pretrial Schedule A ("Schedule A") shall govern the schedule of events in this action; and, therefore, it is incorporated into the Scheduling Order to which it is attached.

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. Conflict With Local Rules Or Federal Rules Of Civil Procedure

Because they govern events incident to trial and the control of the Court's docket, the Scheduling Orders and Pretrial Orders issued by the Court and this Schedule A shall control over any perceived conflicting Local Rule or Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, unless the party perceiving a conflict shall raise it by motion, brief it in the manner required by the Local Rules and demonstrate therein why the perceived conflicting provision of a Pretrial Order, a Scheduling Order or Schedule A should not control.

B. Filing Deadlines And Service Of Papers

1. If any filing deadline set in this Schedule A or the Scheduling Order or a Pretrial Order falls upon a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, service on the opposing counsel or party shall be on the last preceding business day. The papers so served shall be filed on the first business day following the Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

2. All filing deadlines expire at midnight on the applicable date, except as specifically ordered by the Court.

C. Calculation Of The Dates

For the purpose of calculating dates, the date of trial shall not be counted.

D. Settlement

Counsel shall notify the Court immediately of any settlement and shall submit a final order within fifteen (15) calendar days thereafter unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If such an order is not timely submitted, the action will be dismissed by the Court with prejudice on the basis of the representation that the action has been settled.

II. MOTIONS

A. Local Rule 7

Local Rule 7 shall govern the filing of motions in this action, except where otherwise stated. All hearing dates should be arranged with the secretary to the district judge.

B. Discovery Disputes

Counsel are expected to resolve discovery disputes without filing pleadings or involving the Court. If, after good faith effort, counsel are unable to resolve disputes, they will be resolved, if at all possible, in a telephone conference without the filing of pleadings. In the unusual event that resolution of a discovery dispute requires the filing of motions, they shall be filed, briefed and heard in sufficient time to allow completion of the requested discovery by the discovery cut-off date, taking into account the time allowed for responses and replies under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules, or any other Order of the Court.

C. Summary Judgment Motions

1. All motions for summary judgment shall be filed at the earliest possible date consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, but such motions shall be filed no later than forty-five (45) calendar days before the scheduled Final Pretrial Conference.

2. A hearing, if desired, shall be scheduled to take place no later than twenty (20) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference.

D. Motions In Limine

Motions in limine, if any, shall be filed in sufficient time, taking into account the time allowed for responses and replies, to be heard no later than fifteen (15) days before trial. At the discretion of the Court, hearings on motions in limine may be deferred until trial or until the Final Pretrial Conference.

III. DISCOVERY

A. Filing Discovery

Except for good cause shown by motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d), discovery materials shall not be filed with the pleadings or papers in any case. Where specific discovery material may appropriately support or oppose a motion, the specific discovery material in question shall be appended as an exhibit to the motion, or in response thereto, without having been previously filed. Discovery material otherwise permitted to be used at trial may be properly so used, if otherwise admissible, without having been previously filed.

B. Privilege Lists

If a party objects to the production of documents on the grounds of attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other privilege, the objecting party must provide the requesting party with an inventory list of the documents to which objection is made, together with a brief description of the document, including the date, the author, and the identity of each recipient, and the claimed basis for its protection, all of which shall be sufficient to permit the opposing party to assess the claim of privilege or protection.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court on a timely filed motion, claims of privilege or protection shall be waived unless the inventory and description are served with the objections to the request for production in the time required by the Local Rules.

C. Close Of Discovery

All fact discovery, including all supplementation, shall be concluded no later than fifty (50) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference.

IV. EXPERTS

1. Local Rule 26 shall govern disclosure and discovery of experts and their reports.

2. Unless the Court orders otherwise for good cause shown, expert witnesses and reports not disclosed as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) and (3) and the deadlines established herein shall not be allowed to testify or be admitted into evidence, as the case may be.

3. Only one expert per discipline is permitted, except by order of the Court.

V. TRIAL PREPARATION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

A. Written Stipulations

1. 3. No later than fourteen (14) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference, all parties shall serve on all counsel, a list of all "fairness" or rebuttal designations and amended summaries, as appropriate.

4. No later than eleven (11) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference, any objection to the introduction of any designation or parts thereof or any summary shall be filed by each of the parties in writing with the Clerk. Such objection shall be deemed to have been waived if not timely filed.

5. No later than nine (9) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference, counsel shall confer to resolve objections to discovery designations. If objections are not resolved, they shall be determined at the Final Pretrial Conference.

It shall be the responsibility of the objecting party to file the specific discovery designation or summary with the party's objections thereto. All such documents shall be clearly marked, indexed, and easily reviewable.

The party offering the designated discovery shall be responsible for: (i) conforming it to the agreement reached by the parties or to the rulings on the objections; (ii) filing the conformed version; and (iii) providing opposing counsel and the Court with a conformed set of all designated discovery five (5) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference.

2. On or before sixteen (16) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference, defendant shall file a list of proposed exhibits.

3. Any exhibit not listed and timely filed will not be admitted at trial unless used solely for impeachment or rebuttal purposes. Counsel are admonished that the filing of exhibits deemed by the Court to be unnecessary to a just disposition of the case may be found to be violative of 28 U.S.C. § 1927 and the filing of unnecessary exhibits will be the basis for sanctions.

4. A set of exhibits shall be delivered to the opposing party on the date the serving party's exhibit list is filed.

5. Exhibits shall be arranged in a notebook, with each exhibit marked and individually tabbed. Each exhibit notebook should contain an index identifying each exhibit by number and with a short neutral description.

3. Instructions shall be filed as a group with a cover page in pleading form and with a certificate of service at the end. Each instruction shall be set forth on a separate page, shall be numbered and identified by the party submitting it (e.g., "P-1" or "D-1") and the original shall bear at its foot a citation of authority supporting the instruction.
